Spirit Insurance is 'all about the people'

By: Ashley Foreman
reporter@monticellonews.net

Spirit Insurance is now open for business in Monticello and is helping people with their insurance needs.

Owner Marla Coplin specializes in helping people during the annual open enrollment period with Medicare Advantage, Medicare Supplements and Part D plans. She also helps citizens year round who are turning 65, who have a change in their Medicaid status or others who have a change in their medical conditions such as heart failure, diabetes, cardiovascular disease. "I also provide life, final expense, burial and hospital plans, vision and dental insurance for seniors," Coplin stated.

As far as business philosophy goes, for Coplin, it is all about the people.

"I love to help people," Coplin said. "I love to save people money and help them make a wise choice based on their needs. I put my clients first and I thank the Lord for everything I have."

In the future, Coplin hopes to be the "go-to" person for medicare in Monticello and the surrounding areas.

"When starting a business, I advise people to commit to the Lord first," Coplin added. "Be yourself and treat others fairly and with kindness and respect."

Spirit Insurance is proud to be a local business.

"Customers should do business with me because I am local, honest and trustworthy," Coplin noted. "I am dependable and will work hard for you."

For the future, Coplin has big plans for Spirit Insurance.

"My vision is to continue serving
